

Are you using the right amount of toothpaste for your child?

Use a smear (left) of fluoridated toothpaste on your baby's teeth as soon as they erupt, and a pea-sized dollop (right) between 3 to 6, per recommendations from the American Dental Association and the American Pediatric Dental Association.

Call or email Dr. Grant at Children's Choice Pediatric Dentistry if you have any questions.

Dr. Jonelle S. Grant
8500 Annapolis Road Suite 213 New Carrollton, MD 20784
Phone: 301-731-8510
Email: info@mychildrenschoicedental.com